

Applicant Background Checks and Employee Investigation Policy

Winkler, Inc. recognizes the importance of maintaining a safe workplace with employees who are honest, trustworthy, qualified, reliable and non-violent, and do not present a risk of serious harm to their co-employees or others. For purposes of furthering these concerns and interests, before hiring an individual, Winkler, Inc. reserves the right to investigate the individual's prior employment history, personal references and educational background, as well as other relevant information that is reasonably and legally available to Winkler, Inc., in hiring for certain positions, Winkler, Inc. may review an applicant's credit report. Winkler, Inc. may also, pursuant to I.C. 5-2-5-5, inquire into an applicant's criminal background, if any. Consistent with these practices, all job applicants will be asked to sign one or more of the "Consent To" and "Authorization For Release of Information" forms (hereinafter "Releases") so as to allow Winkler, Inc. to obtain documents concerning the applicant's background. Winkler, Inc. reserves the right to exclude any applicant from consideration for employment, if the applicant refuses to sign the "Releases".

In addition, Winkler, Inc. may occasionally find it necessary to investigate current employees, where behavior or other relevant circumstances raise legitimate questions concerning work performance, reliability, honesty, trustworthiness, or potential threat to the safety of co-employees or others. Employee investigations may, where appropriate, include appropriate inquiries about any employees who are in the process of being apprehended by a law enforcement agency or who have been placed under arrest for the alleged commission of a crime. Employees subject to such investigations are required to reasonably cooperate with Winkler, Inc. efforts to lawfully obtain relevant information, and will be disciplined up to and including discharge for failure to do so.

All employees are strongly encouraged to immediately report any incidents of potentially threatening, harmful, or criminal behavior of co-employees, supervisors, customers, clients, or visitors that may negatively affect the safety, security, productivity or financial interests of Winkler, Inc. or its workplace to John Winkler or Josh Winkler.

By signing this Applicant Background Check and Employee Investigation Policy, the applicant/employee is certifying that he/she has provided complete and truthful information to Winkler, Inc. regarding all sources of information about his/her past employment, education, and applicable license(s) and/or certifications, criminal conviction record, as well as any other information requested in the employment application. The applicant/employee also certifies that falsifying information will be grounds for denying the applicant's application, withdrawing any offer of employment, or immediate discharge.

I have read and fully understand this Applicant Background Check and Employee Investigation Policy.
